

UK Category B Requirement for Negative Covid Test

User Experience with NHS and Cyprus Flight Pass- August 2020

The Test

Test should be taken and record of time kept no more than 72 hours before 'Flight Scheduled Departure Time'

Step 1. Book a test the night before you require it (<https://www.gov.uk/get-coronavirus-test>) and make sure it's after 8pm. You will input your postcode and it will give you the nearest available site.

Step 2. A sms confirmation will be sent to you straightaway confirming the appointment

Step 3. Read through and ensure that you have the QR code to hand when you arrive at the site, wear a face mask, they will also ask for identification, e.g. passport or driving licence when you arrive at the test site.

Step 4. Ask for assistance, someone will direct you to a booth.

We didn't want to take any chances with an "inconclusive" result. It wasn't too uncomfortable, a little weird up your nose, but certainly nothing that should put people off from taking it.

Step 5. Test takes no more than a minute to complete, drivers test was done first, and then the passenger second

Step 6. Go home and wait for results

We had the test at 10am in the morning and the results came back just before midnight the same day. So all in all it went pretty well!

We received an e-mail with results at midnight and, an sms in the morning. We've printed everything off and taking hard copies

Cyprus Flight Pass

Step 1. Register for Cyprus Flight Pass- <https://cyprusflightpass.gov.cy/> (this can be done anytime)

Step 2. No more than 24 hours before commencement of scheduled flight 'arrival', login and follow the step by step guide on the CFP

Step 3. Ensure all fields are filled correctly. (It didn't like our address 14/3 so had to just put 14 in and the clock is very fiddly, don't tap the arrows, only tap in the actual numbers)

Step 4. Upload your test results, either by pdf or take a photograph of the document, and then upload. Best to include the sms and/or email showing appointment time but it doesn't ask for this. The sms or appt confirmation (showing date and time of test) should be taken separately and be available to view on arrival in Cyprus (We chose to take a photograph as it was the easier). Cont....

Step 5. Accept all terms and conditions

Step 6. Press “submit” and if there is anything wrong the field will be shown in red.

Step 7. You then receive an e-mail attaching a PDF with your CFP with clearance to fly.

Step 8. Your on your way to Cyprus 😊
